ANNUAL MEETING AND BANQUET

DEVELOPMENT BUREAU AND TOURIST ASSN. MEET OCTOBER 22.

The annual business meetings of the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau and the East Michigan Tourist Association will take place at Bay City, October 22 and will be followed in the evening by the annual joint "Get-Together" dinner of the two organizations. The gatherings promise to be the most interesting and entertaining in the history of the two organizations.

Newspaper men of East Michigan have charge of the dinner which will be held at the Hotel Wenonah ball room at 6:30 P. M., eastern standard time. The newspaper men in a referendum selected an executive committee of twelve to make the arrangements for the dinner. Music, speakers and entertainment are in full charge of this committee. For the present the committee is withholding announcements of the program. Nothing can be said at this time regarding what is planned and it is probable that some details will never be announced as several of the members on the program will be veiled in a shroud of secrecy.

The personnel of the executive committee is indicative and the entire affair will lack nothing in zest, interest and fun. The make-up of the committee is: Chairman, W. H. Gustin, Bay City Times Tribune; W. H. Whitely, Presque Isle County Advance; Rogers, Thomas Ferguson; Alpena News; O. P. Schumann, Crawford County Avalanche; Grayling; W. A. Crandell, Herald-Times, West Branch; H. S. Babcock, Alma Record; Michael Gorman, Saginaw News Courier; George English, Huron County Tribune; Ed Aze, H. A. Houghton, Detroit Free Press; George Perry, Flint Journal; B. N. Wynkoon, Jackson Citizen Patriot; Stuart Perry, Adrian Telegram.

The annual meeting of the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau, comprising 16 counties in Northeastern Michigan, will be held in the Shoppenapen Grotto Building at 1:00 P. M., eastern standard time. Directors will be elected for the ensuing year and other business transacted. Three directors from each county will be chosen, two nominated by the board of supervisors and one at large from each county. Following adjournment of the business meeting, the directors will meet to elect a president, two vice-presidents, a treasurer and an executive committee of one representative from each county.

The annual meeting of the members of the East Michigan Tourist Association comprising 37 counties in the Eastern side of the lower peninsula, will take place at 3:00 P. M., eastern standard time in the Shoppenapen Grotto Building. A director will be elected from each county and other business will be transacted. After the membership meeting adjourns the directors will meet to elect a president, three vice-presidents, a treasurer and an executive committee of eight.

A joint general meeting of the members of the two organizations will be held in the Grotto building at 4:00 P. M., eastern standard time. Reports of committees, resolutions, the budget for 1926 and other matters will be discussed at this general meeting. Members of both organizations are urged to be present at these meetings and to participate therein.

The offices of the two organizations are located in the Shoppenapen Grotto Building.

SKETCHES OF EARLY MICHIGAN HISTORY.

The October issue of the Michigan History Magazine carries a very interesting sketch of early travel relating to Michigan and nearby territory about the time the state was admitted to the Union. It is one of a series of letters running through the Magazine during the year, written by C. F. Hoffman a New Yorker, who visited the western frontier on horseback in 1833, and included Michigan in his tour. In this letter he is traveling the old Chicago turnpike on his way from Detroit to Chicago.

He says, "Being now on the mail route between Detroit and Chicago, I am traveling very comfortably in a four-horse wagon, with the gentlemen mentioned in my last. I found my horse's back so chafed at White Pigeon, that it was unpleasant to use him any longer under the saddle and having met with my trunk at Niles, which was forwarded from Monroe by a friend, I am in a measure compelled to adopt what is certainly the most agreeable mode of travelling at this season, through a bleak prairie country.

"The cold winter moon was still riding high in the heavens as we ferried over the Joseph's at Niles this morning. A low-sided snow was the means of conveyance; and after breaking the solid ice near the shore to lose us from our moorings, it required some pains to shun the detached cakes which came driving down the center of the dark rolling river, while, near the opposite shore, they had become so wedged and frozen together that it required considerable exertion to break a way with our long poles, and make good our landing. At length, ascending the bank a beautiful clump of trees here and there upon its surface, opened to our view. The establishment of the Carey Mission, a long, low white building, could be distinguished afar off faintly in the moonlight while several winter lodges of the Potawatamies, three or four hundred which tribe inhabit this fine district were plainly perceptible over the plain. The moon indeed, shone with an effulgence such as I have never witnessed, except beneath the pearly skies of the west. Morning came at last; still, but excessively cold, our horses' manes and our own clothes being covered with hoar-frost, while each blade of grass that shot its wild spear above the snow glistened like a diamond's point beneath the uprising sun.

This entire series of sketches is very readable, giving a vivid picture of early life in Michigan. The Michigan History Magazine is furnished free to schools and libraries. To individuals it is one dollar a year. It is published by the Michigan Historical Commission at Lansing.

PARENTS, IS YOUR SON ONE OF THESE? OR GOING TO BE WHEN HE IS A LITTLE OLDER

The other day a prominent citizen of Grayling remarked, "Poor cigarette smokes, they are not worth the room they take up. How can the girls endure them! They know nothing but to dance their fool heads off and play a good game of cards."

"But these and Mothers can we not drill it into our young folks that there is something more in life than this? Are we setting the right example? Actions speak louder than words. Two of our young people called recently at the home of one of our officers of Grayling to sell lyeum tickets, yes, he would take two, but upon handing out the money said, 'Say, whom is this for?' When informed it was the church that was promoting it, he put his money back into his pocket and said, 'No tickets.'"

What encouragement was this for our young folks to try to do something worth while for our town. That officer's name should be broadcast over the County, and when the time comes to re-elect to that office well, is there a citizen in Grayling who would vote for a man who would not give that much support to our church, no matter what creed? We are wondering if he will make a statement in his will that he will not be in need of a careman at his funeral.—Contributed.

LESS SPEARING AND MORE PLANTING

J. STOELKER REPLIES TO T. P. PETERSON ARTICLE

Saginaw, Oct. 12, 1925
Editor "Avalanche", Grayling, Mich.
"Less spearing and more planting"—That is splendid caption and fits in nicely with what I wish to say in the following article, so kindly retain the same for this issue.

I have read with much pleasure Mr. Peterson's article in your last issue, and while in the main I heartily agree with him, I do not want to be accused of taking "drastic" measures at the outset in order to conserve the fish in our inland waters. This is the reason why I have taken up the conservative or spearing side of the question and am glad to note that Mr. Peterson has relieved me of the "drastic" or setting side, as the following quotation from his letter will show:

"Lake Margrethe will never be depleted of its pike by spearing, but we should stop commercial fishing, reduce the number of set lines per person, and shorten the season to January and February. We could also, if necessary limit the number of pike to be taken on a trip day on both spearing and set lines."

If the State Conservation Commission did not consider that spearing thru the ice with the aid of artificial bait was a menace to the fishing in inland waters, why did Mr. Baird some three weeks ago issue an order prohibiting all spearing thru the ice on all inland lakes south of the north line of Anson, Gladwin, Mason, Lake Clara and Oshtemo counties?

While at the lake last summer one of our leading citizens started to me that he had taken 25 fine pike from Portage lake last winter with a spear in one day. I made no mention, in my former article, of the "set line" and not disposed to do so at the present time except to state that I heartily agree in sympathy with Mr. Peterson's ideas along that line, and if he will devote a little time to the "drastic" or set line side of the problem I would be pleased to argue from the "conservative" or spearing angle, so that between us much good to the public at large can be accomplished.

I did not state in my former article and I do not now, that I have heartily agreed with Mr. Peterson's ideas along that line, and if he will devote a little time to the "drastic" or set line side of the problem I would be pleased to argue from the "conservative" or spearing angle, so that between us much good to the public at large can be accomplished.

Sincerely yours,
J. H. Stoelker.

ELMER SMITH AND MISS CORA KING WED

A romance that began during their high school days culminated in their marriage on Saturday evening of Miss Cora L. King and Elmer Smith. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of the M. E. church, Rev. Herman Baughn officiating. Miss Cora L. King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, and is popular in athletic circles here, during his high school career winning much fame in basketball. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mrs. Alesna J. King of Houghton Lake and came to Grayling to attend high school. Both bridesmaids of Grayling High, the bride of this year's class and the groom of the class of '24. They are popular among their friends and are extended best wishes and congratulations. They are making their home in Grayling.

FREDERIC LECTURE COURSE

Frederic, Oct. 14.—One of the largest crowds that was ever seen in Frederic was assembled Tuesday night in the High school auditorium to listen to the Neapolitan Serenaders in their rendering of the first number on the Lecture course. There were people present from Grayling, Maple Forest and Deward, showing the interest we have aroused not only in Frederic, but also in the surrounding community.

The players were very skillful indeed with their musical instruments and left an excellent impression with the crowd. Considerably more than the $100 required to pay for the first number on the course was raised and the outlook for raising the balance is fine.

The next number on the course is the Gerhardt Duo that will appear in Frederic Nov. 18.

We wish to thank those who were with us Tuesday night, and we earnestly solicit a continuance of your patronage.

Lovells School Notes

Our enrollment numbers 11 this year. The first and second grades are progressing nicely in reading. We are very glad to see Elmo Nephew back after being sick.

Jake Stillwagon was a visitor at our school Friday.

Today we had a very interesting talk on the life of Columbus. The seventh grade wrote very good topics about him for composition work.

Miss Knopfer gave us each a tube of tooth paste, sent to her by the Colgate Co. We expect to see some clean teeth and smiling faces.

We are getting ready for Halloween; we are planning on a party. We welcome visitors at any time. Come and see what we are doing. Editors Seventh Grade.

SECRETARY GENERAL

An admirably posed portrait of Dr. Christy Mathewson, the Swiss pitcher, who is secretary general of the Interparliamentary union and of the congress of the union in Washington.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON, BASEBALL IDOL, DIES

Tuberculosis, Developing From Gas in War, Fatal.

Saratoga Lake, N. Y. — Christy Mathewson is dead.

Baseball's "Big Six" lost his fight against tuberculosis.

More than five years ago the great pitcher loved and honored wherever he went, began what was to be a losing struggle. Chased in the World War in France, where he served with distinction, Mathewson returned from overseas to coach with the Giants, the club with which he won his fame, but the illness which was finally to take his life forced him to retire for recuperation in 1920.

On the training trip South last spring with the Braves Mathewson took cold and he never fully recovered.

Christy Mathewson.

He had been in bed in his home ever since, Mrs. Mathewson being in constant attendance.

Death, according to his physician, was due to tuberculosis and pneumonia. A son, Christy Mathewson Jr., who is at college, was not at the bedside when his father died.

Mathewson was the idol of baseball fans for more than two decades.

Sees Doom of Electric Roads Unless Given Aid

Atlantic City, N. J. — We are not crying "help the railroads," but we do say that without co-ordination and co-operation from the public and the authorities they cannot continue to exist except as municipal undertakings and only by increasing the general tax roll. To have public transportation cease means decreased values in every other kind of prosperity, and one that cannot be solved by railway management alone. The public and its representatives must lend a helping hand, or the industry in many localities is doomed.

The future of electric railway transportation in the United States was thus epitomized by B. C. Cobb of New York in an address before the American Electric Railway association in convention in this city.

Illness Forces Barbara La Marr to Quit Work

Los Angeles, Cal.—The Los Angeles Examiner says Barbara La Marr has suffered a breakdown in health that will compel her temporary retirement from the screen.

The actress collapsed during the filming of a scene here and physicians who attended her at her home advised her to give up her work until she regains her strength and vitality.

Bancroft Left $1,899,716

Chicago.—Careful investments by the late Edgar A. Bancroft, American ambassador to Japan, had raised the value of his estate to $1,899,716 at the time of his death. It was revealed when an inventory was filed in the Probate court.

Bandits Rob Mail Truck

Los Angeles.—Five or more masked men held up a United States mail truck here and escaped with registered mail of undetermined value.

GREEN SAYS LABOR WILL FIGHT MOSCOW

Spurns Appeal by Briton for Closer Relationship With Communists.

Atlantic City, N. J.—An appeal to American labor by Arthur A. Purcell, member of the British parliament to establish close relations with the organized workers of Russia was spurned by President William Green of the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention.

President Green, in his answer to Mr. Purcell, said:

"I want to be frank and kindly in all I say; but we in America know something of the teachings of Communism and the control the Communist party exercises over the so-called Russian International."

"We know that influence emanating from Moscow is seeking, as it has always sought, not to co-operate with us but to capture and control us. They call the officers and representatives of the American labor movement 'fascists' and 'scabs.' Frankly they say they do not believe in collective bargaining. They do not see in any strike an opportunity to increase wages, to shorten hours, to improve the condition of the employment for workers, but they see in every strike an opportunity for revolution."

"The Trade Union Educational League here in America, which is a creature of the Communist party, frankly announces that its policy is to bore within the labor movement, to destroy it and substitute for our philosophy the philosophy of Communism."

"We are not ready to accept that, and we wish that our friend who has so kindly offered such frank suggestions might take back to the Russian International this message: 'That the American labor movement will not affiliate with an organization that preaches that doctrine.'"

Green swung his fist, and his powerful voice reached all parts of the hall. The delegates rose as one, stamped their feet, and yelled their approval.

Air Board Hears Views of Naval and Army Officers

Washington.—Two rear admirals and a navy captain took diametrically opposed positions to that of an army lieutenant colonel, the leading tactical expert of the army on air defense, as they sought to be done with the country's air service before the President's special investigation board.

The navy officers all contended that under the circumstances should the air service be separated from navy command. The army officer, Lieut. Col. Thomas Dewitt Milling, said that chaos would result in battle and the national defense be crippled unless a separate air force was set up.

$30,000,000 Coal Merger

Announced at Nashville

Nashville, Tenn.—A merger of coal and coke companies, involving properties worth about $30,000,000 and backed by large capital interests of Chicago, New York and various eastern cities was announced by the Bon Air Coal and Iron corporation.

By the merger the Bon Air corporation takes over the properties of the Tennessee Consolidated Coal and Coke company. The sale of the Chattanooga Gas and Coke company is subject to ratification by the stockholders.

Five Air Mail Routes

Given to Private Firms

Washington.—Another chapter in American postal history began with the award of five contracts to private enterprise for the carrying of the mails by airplane. On the results of the undertaking Postmaster General New declared, the future of aerial transport in the United States depends. The National Air Transport, Inc., of Chicago, was one of the successful bidders. It was awarded the route from Chicago to Dallas and Fort Worth, Tex.

Anthracite Districts Peaceful

Hazleton, Pa.—Operators have made no effort to mine coal and entirely peaceful conditions have prevailed in the hard-coal district throughout the strike, the miners staying away from the mines.

Mining Men Meet at Capital

Washington.—The American Mining congress will meet in Washington for its annual convention December 9, 10 and 11. This is the first time the mining convention has been held in the national capital.

Grapes Cause Car Shortage

Boise, Idaho.—Shipment of grapes from California is clogging freight cars and making it impossible to load more than 50 per cent of Idaho's general crop. J. L. Priest of the Union Pacific system said.

Sue for Buffalo Bill's Grave

Denver, Colo.—A suit against the city of Denver seeking to gain title to the top of Lookout mountain, where Buffalo Bill is buried, was filed by W. M. Marrs of Denver.

COMTEE INSPECTS NORMAL SITE

NORMAL COMMITTEE VISITS GRAYLING

A committee, consisting of the State Board of Education made an official visit to Grayling Wednesday soon to look over the proposed site or the new normal school that is to be established somewhere in northern Michigan. Among the many cities adding for the school are Grayling, Cadillac, East Jordan, Manistee, Ankeny, Petoskey, Cheboygan, Bayliff, Ludington, Boyne City, Alpena, West Branch and East Tawas. The local committee appointed by the Board of Trade met the committee of the State Board of Education and showed them the site which Grayling is offering and also made the formal business proposition that is extended to the citizens of Grayling.

Those in the visiting committee were A. N. Freeland, Grand Rapids; Frank Cody, Detroit; Fred Jeffers, Ansonville, Upper Peninsula; Hon. T. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction, Lansing; Frank Sparks, newspaper correspondent of the Grand Rapids Herald, also was in the party.

While there is much that should be said in print at this time regarding Grayling's proposal to the State department, we can say that our proposition was well and ably presented to the State board. They have our statements on paper as well as having heard what we have to present.

They are a fine lot of intelligent business men and we are sure are out to serve the people for the state's best interests. Just what may be the outcome of the project we have no way of knowing. But we are confident that Grayling has a proposition that, considered from all angles, is equal to or superior to any other that may be offered to the state.

Our campaign has not been mixed up in politics and our committee have not annoyed the State board by sending delegations to visit them, nor have we burdened them with literature. This matter has been handled in Grayling's usual business-like manner. The people of town have spoken nobly by their personal interests and by their pledges and the world knows that whatever we promise that we fulfill, and should the time come to make good our offer, the response is going to be prompt and without reservation. We have a feeling that we shall win and if so there shall be great rejoicing. Should we lose, it shall be with much regret and disappointment, but without remorse.

FRIED CAKES AND COFFEE FREE

The City Restaurant will be reopened for business next Saturday, Oct. 17th, with Geo. A. Colten again as proprietor.

On that Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. coffee and fried cakes will be furnished free of charge.

Everyone is cordially invited to come in and have a lunch. The place has been entirely redecorated and rearranged, and with some new furniture. We shall endeavor to serve the people just as they like to be served—good thing to eat and everything clean and neat.

Geo. A. Colten, Prop.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Federation of Labor Spurns Britain's Plea for Union With Russian Workers.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

GRAT BRITAIN is alarmed by the spread of communism in that country, but Americans need not worry about it over here, if the words of President William Green of the American Federation of Labor and the cheers that greeted them in the federation's annual convention are a true indication.

Arthur A. Purcell, member of the British parliament, president of the International Federation of Trades Unions and a fraternal delegate in the meeting in Atlantic City, told the convention of his recent visit to Russia and his study of industrial conditions there and then advised the workers of America to establish the closest relations with the Russian workers.

"We must not be afraid of new ideas," he said. "It has often struck me that, while the Americans have been the most advanced, the most receptive in ideas concerning mechanical inventions and business organization, they have been slow in accepting new social and political ideas."

Just as British workers have sent delegations to Russia, so I hope and trust the American Federation of Labor will do the same. Do not be afraid of being called names. Were Abraham Lincoln, Samuel Gompers or "Gene Debs" those great sons of the American people, ever afraid of being called names or being called traitors, traitors or traitors?

Whereupon President Green arose with fire in his eyes and said: "We in America know something of the teachings of communism and the control the communist party exercises over the so-called Russian international. We know that influence emanating from Moscow is seeking, as it has always sought, not to cooperate with us but to capture and control us. They call the officers and representatives of the American labor movement 'fakers, crooks, and scabs.' Frankly they say they do not believe in collective bargaining. They do not see in any strike an opportunity to increase wages, to shorten hours, to improve the condition of the employment for workers, but they see in every strike an opportunity for revolution."

"The Trade Union Educational League here in America, which is a creature of the communist party, frankly announces that its policy is to bore within the labor movement, to destroy it and substitute for our philosophy the philosophy of communism. We are not ready to accept that, and we wish that our friend who has so kindly offered such frank suggestions might take back to the Russian Red International this message: That the American labor movement will not affiliate with an organization that preaches that doctrine."

In the opening of the convention Mr. Green voiced the determination of organized labor to fight for passage of the child labor amendment to the Constitution. The executive council reported an increase of 13,000 in membership over last year.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE won new laurels for himself by his address before the convention of the American Legion in Omaha. "Tolerance" was his main theme, and he pleaded eloquently with his fellow Americans to drop every vestige of racial, religious and sectional intolerance. "It seems clear," said he, "that the results of the war will be lost and we shall only be entering a period of preparation for another conflict, unless we can demolish the racial antagonisms, fears, hatreds, and suspicions, and create an attitude of toleration in the public mind of the peoples of the earth. If our country is to have any position of leadership, I trust it may be in that direction—and I believe that the place where it should begin is at home."

"If we are to maintain and perfect our own civilization, if we are to be of any benefit to the rest of mankind, we must turn aside from the thoughts of destruction and cultivate the thoughts of construction. We cannot place our main reliance upon material forces. We must reaffirm and reinforce our ancient faith in truth and justice, in charity and tolerance. We must make our supreme commitment to the everlasting spiritual forces of life. We must mobilize the conscience of mankind."

Mr. Coolidge paid warm tribute to the service rendered to the country and to humanity by the members of the legion, and thus summarized remarkably well America's effort in the World War.

"In the victory which was finally gained by our country and our foreign comrades, you represented on the battlefield the united efforts of our whole people. You were there as the result of a great resurgence of the old American spirit, which manifested itself in a thousand ways, by the pouring out of vast sums of money in credits and charities; by the organization and quickening of every hand in our extended industries; by the expansion of agriculture until it met the demands of a famishing continent; by the manufacture of an unending stream of munitions and supplies; by the creation of vast fleets of war and transport ships, and finally, when the tide of battle was turning against our associates, by bringing into action a great armed force on sea and land of a character that the world had never seen before, which, when it finally took its place in the line, never ceased to advance, carrying the cause of liberty to a triumphant conclusion. You reaffirmed the position of this nation in the estimation of mankind. You saved civilization from a gigantic reverse. No body says now that Americans cannot fight."

Earlier in his address he said he was "a thorough believer in a policy of adequate military preparation, and after the cheers subsided he continued: "No doubt this country could, if it wished to spend more money, make a better military force, but that is only part of the problem that confronts the government. The real question is whether spending more money to make a better military force would really make a better nation."

It is an honorable and patriotic calling of the highest rank. But I can see no merit in an unnecessary expenditure of money to hire men to build fleets and carry munitions when international relations and agreements permit the turning of such resources into the making of good roads, the building of better homes, the promotion of education and all the other arts of peace which minister to the advancement of human welfare."

The Presidential party, which included Mrs. Coolidge, returned at once to Washington, with a short stop in St. Louis.

The Legion gathering was considerably stirred up over Colonel Mitchell and his air service charges and theories. Finally a compromise resolution was adopted which, without naming Mitchell, recommended the reorganization of the national defense under one cabinet officer with subdivisions of equal importance for land, sea and air.

Philadelphia was awarded the convention of 1928 and it was decided to hold the meeting of 1927 in Paris, France.

WITH Judge E. Finley Johnson of Michigan, a member of the Philippine Supreme court, presiding, the international judicial commission to investigate the Shanghai riots opened its inquiry. The body is composed of American, British and French judges, and, according to the Chinese, is dominated by the British with the Americans as their dupes. Therefore the Chinese are violently opposing the investigation, asserting that there is no chance of a fair decision.

ALTHOUGH the allied and German statesmen in conference at Locarno, Switzerland, are working earnestly and apparently amicably to draft a security treaty, they have not, at this writing, solved the main problem, the eastern frontiers of Germany. Briand insisted that France should have the right to guarantee the arbitration treaties between Germany and Poland and Germany and Czechoslovakia, and Chamberlain for Great Britain supported him, but the Germans, Stresemann and Luther, objected, preferring England as the sponsor for the treaties. They also declared firmly that they would not agree to any provision in any of the treaties which would prevent Germany's seeking recognition of the eastern frontiers. The security pact for the Franco-German frontier could be fixed up speedily except for one point—the right of France to send troops through German territory to aid her allies of the little entente in case they are attacked.

ITALY'S Fascists are going ahead at a great pace. Last week they brought about an agreement of closest co-operation between the confederation of industry, representing the employers, and the federation of Fascist labor unions, and then the grand council of the Fascist framed constitutional changes giving the government absolute control of every phase of industrial, political and administrative activity. One provision creates a board of compulsory arbitration for industry and labor, and another makes strikes crimes punishable by death. The Fascist also are conducting a violent campaign against Freemasons and there have resulted serious disorders in various cities, especially Florence where several murders were committed.

COL. WILLIAM MITCHELL, on the eve of court-martial for insubordination, was ordered by the adjutant general of the army to appear before the naval court investigating the airship Shenandoah. He showed up in full uniform and accompanied by his counsel, Congressman Frank Reid of Illinois. The colonel objected to taking the oath but asked leave to read a brief statement. Admiral Jones, president of the court, refused to allow this and Mitchell still declining to testify, the court took the matter under advisement.

The President's air board heard a large number of officers of the various services. The air officers were about equally divided for and against the proposition of a defense department with a separate air force. Rear Admiral Mahony, chief of the bureau of aeronautics, was an especially interesting witness, giving his opinion of the air service as of the greatest value and telling the board at length what he thought should be done to improve it. On Wednesday the board adjourned to attend the three days of air racing at Mitchell field.

DEFYING the known wishes of the board, the federal shipping board, after depriving the Fleet corporation of its powers, removed Leigh C. Palmer from the presidency of the corporation and ordered that Elmer E. Crowley be elected to succeed him. Palmer was offered a vice presidency in charge of European affairs but declined and severed all connection with the corporation. Other changes of personnel were ordered by the board and carried out. Rear Admiral Cone, retired, vice president and general manager of the Fleet corporation, then resigned, telling Chairman O'Connor that "without regard to other considerations, I cannot, as a retired naval officer, serve any organization that defies the wishes and policies of the President of the United States."

FRENCH and Spanish forces in eastern Morocco have effected a junction, the former advancing northward from Kifane and the latter moving south from Alhucemas bay. Thus the Rifis are completely surrounded. But the rainy season on which Abd-el-Krim has been counting has come and the Europeans are finding their operations increasingly difficult. Jules Steeg, minister of justice, has been selected as resident general of French Morocco to succeed Marshal Lyautey, who resigned.

In Syria the rebellious Druses have been thoroughly routed by the French tanks and bombing planes.

JUST as the world's championship series between the Washington and Pittsburgh ball teams was opening, all lovers of the national game were saddened by the word that Christy Mathewson, one of the most famous and best loved of all pitchers, was dead at Saratoga Lake, N. Y. "Big Six" as he was called, succumbed to tuberculosis which attacked him after he was gassed in the World war.

Why That Bad Back?

Is backache keeping you upset? Feel all tired-out—so nervous and dispirited you can hardly keep going? Then look to your kidneys! Your kidneys rid the body of poisonous waste. But if they lag, impurities accumulate and poison the whole system. Then one is apt to suffer from backache, aching pains, head-aches, dizziness, and other annoying kidney irregularities. If your kidneys are sluggish, help them with a diuretic. Use Doan's Pills. They are praised the world over. Ask your neighbor!

Men or Mars?

Several scientists have come to the conclusion that Martians actually exist, and are a race not very different from our own. They are said to have proofs that Mars is in the condition that the earth is approaching—that is, a desert.

Wind erosion has removed the mountains and hills and the seas have disappeared. The canals are not ditches nor water courses, but vegetation on each side of conduits of water used as routes of travel.

These scientists also hope to prove that beings of an intelligence and a civilization far in advance of ours exist on Mars.

How the Reform Worked

When the Union troops under Grant, early in the Civil war, took possession of West Kentucky some difficulty was encountered in controlling the populace, for that end of the state was a hotbed of southern sentiment and most of the young men had enlisted in the Confederate army. General Grant issued proclamations stating that no citizen would be molested unless he undertook to give aid and comfort to the enemy.

In one town in the invaded district, though, there was an elderly gentleman whose sympathies with the southern cause were especially outspoken. Whenever word came of a victory for the southern armies his jubilation was undisguised.

The Union provost-marshal, hearing complaints from his men of the man's actions and words, decided to make an example of him. He sent a squad to arrest the offender and presently, under guard, the old gentleman was brought before him.

"Look here," said the provost-marshal, "I'm getting tired of your behavior. Every few days I hear that you've been going about again spreading reports that our forces have been defeated and bragging about the courage of the other side. Now then, I've decided to reform you. Either you take the oath of allegiance to the Union right now or off you go to a military prison. Which shall it be?"

The prisoner decided to take the oath. After it had been administered the northern officer felt that a further admonition might be in order. "Now, then," he said, "I hope you understand what this thing means? If ever again you utter a word of disparagement for the Union cause or a word of approval for the Confederates, and I hear of it, you'll suffer severely, because now you're a loyal Unionist. And if you make a single disloyal remark you're guilty of treason."

The reclaimed one thanked him for the warning. On his way out he stopped at the door.

"Major," he said, "they ain't no law against thinkin' is they?"

"That depends," said the major. "What's in your mind now?"

"Well," said the Kentuckian, "I was just thinkin' that them Yankees certainly did give us fellers a hard day before yistiddy down below the state line."

The Most Unkindest Cut of All

On the stage of a music hall in the East-end of London a memory wizard with a pronounced Cockney accent was offering an exhibition of his skill in response to questions from the audience he gave, offhand, and promptly the dates of historic events, the distance from the earth to the moon, and other facts and figures without fail.

It was quite evident from the language of some of his statements that the performer was a most patriotic Briton. Invariably, when mentioning a great English achievement, his voice rose exultantly.

Sitting well down in front were two Americans. They figured that the wizard must have accomplished in the house to ask him questions prepared beforehand. To find out whether or not the performer did have the powers of memory he boasted and with a view also to arousing his patriotic fervor to a still higher pitch, if possible, one of the Yankees called out:

"Professor, please tell me what memorable event occurred on July the Fourth, 1776?"

"Without a moment's hesitation the professor shot back his reply: "A h'infarnal 'h'outrage, sir!" he shouted.

"Nay," said the prudent MacTavish, "I'm no goin' yet. But I'm tellin' ye now 'gint' while I know ye."

Red Crown—A Premium Gasoline at a standard price—glides up the grade of popular favor with great ease.

Thousands of motorists have recognized the force of the "price per mile" argument and switched over to Red crown.

The price per gallon contention is weak-kneed—has no bearing.

The story is told better by what is built in the gasoline.

Of what significance is the question of a saving of a few cents on an investment of hundreds of dollars?

If you pay less for your gasoline than the price of Red Crown, you are getting less—and that is false economy raised to the nth power, no matter how it is disguised.

BORAH AGAIN RAGING

Senator Borah is up in arms again. He is now in deep trouble over Saklatvala, the Communist gentleman from England who is a member of Parliament and whom Secretary Kellogg denied the right of admittance to this country. Mr. Saklatvala is very proud of his communism, and he is all for tearing down the union-jack and setting up the red flag. Under the immigration law passed by Congress, this radical cannot enter, but Mr. Borah does not pay any attention to the fact that the officials at Ellis Island would have turned him back if Secretary Kellogg had not prevented that humiliation by notifying him ahead of time that it would be just as well for him to stay at home. According to Mr. Borah any "red" who announces his desire to destroy the particular government under which he is living is merely exercising the right of free speech, and, consequently, he must be given special treatment. Evidently Mr. Borah makes some distinction between the Socialist who comes a-shouting and the radical who comes a-shooting. Usually, however, the gentleman who comes a-shouting is the one who incites others to come a-shooting while he remains comfortably in the background. Secretary Kellogg did just exactly what the people of the United States expected him to do, which, of course, accounts for Mr. Borah's objection.

Holland, Denmark, Switzerland and the other little nations of Europe who had such a tough time remaining neutral during the war, can make up for it now with the consolation that they don't owe anybody and that nobody owes them.

THE WOMAN WHO WORKS

In this new order of things, with women, both married and single, broadening their business activities, a very serious problem arises. It is the problem of what, when, and where to eat.

Breakfast is always a hurry-up meal for the man but much more so for the woman who goes to business. Lunch, of course, are taken in the lunchrooms and are no problem. But how about dinners? Shall they, too, be restaurant meals or can they be so planned that business women may enjoy the home cooking of which they are so fond? Take away the element of haste and anxiety and in its place put carefully thought-out menus, well planned and easily prepared, and home dinners will again regain their high favor with the working housewife.

One of the big worries is frequently with the milk. Did it come? Is it fresh? Is it frozen? Has the milkman been paid? Are the bottles washed and set out? However, there is no cause for worry about milk. Why not keep a dozen cans of evaporated milk in your pantry? There are large cans, equal to a quart of milk and smaller cans that will meet the lesser needs.

For evaporated milk is just pure, fresh milk with more than half the water missing. This water can be replaced in a jiffy, if you so desire, or you can use it as cream if rich and creamy foods are desired.

Here are a few recipes that may be used by "The Woman Who Works" for forming her plans for self help and good home cooking.

Scalloped Ham and Potatoes.
1 pound smoked ham 1 1/2 cups water
1 medium potato 1 green pepper
1/2 cup evaporated milk (may be omitted)
Flour

Cover the bottom of an oiled baking dish with sliced, raw potatoes. Sprinkle with flour and pieces of ham 1/2 inch square. Repeat until dish is full. Fill dish 1/2 full of diluted milk. Bake until potatoes are tender.

Eggs on Casserole.
1 hard-boiled egg 1/2 cup evaporated milk
1 egg 1/2 cup water
1 tbsp. butter 1/2 cup grated cheese

During this time Fr. J. J. Culligan was ably assisted by Fathers Hansknack of Mackinaw City, Hasenberg of West Branch, Miller of Campbells Corners, Van Coulen of Gladwin and Plafie of Grayling. The music that was rendered at most all the services was fine.

Sunday evening the people were treated to a very interesting sermon delivered by Fr. Hansknack of Mackinaw. And on Monday evening Fr. Van Coulen of Gladwin gave a very fine sermon.

PECK GUILTY AT- TEMPTED MURDER

JURY DELIBERATES 15 MINUTES.

Court Still In Session. Sentences To Be Imposed Friday.

TIFFIN AND FITZPATRICK GUILTY

The wheels of Circuit court for Crawford county are still grinding, and it looks as tho it would take all week to finish the calendar.

Court opened Tuesday afternoon with Judge Guy E. Smith on the bench and S. M. Atkins as stenographer, and the long list of arraignments were had. At this time the following cases were disposed of:

For violation of the prohibition law, the following entered pleas of guilty: Henry Ross, Wesley Canfield, Albert Moon, Ben Joslin, Edward Headstead, William Peck, Lewis McCormick, Thomas Nowland and Roy Wells.

The other cases listed on the calendar under that charge were disposed of as follows: Conrad Sorenson, dismissed. This is a case in which the defendant was arrested last year while the National Guard was in camp, during which time he was alleged to have sold liquor to certain soldiers, two of whom became ill and for a time it was feared they would die. It came before Col. Heinrich Pickert, their officer who placed the matter before the local officers and Sorenson it is claimed, was "caught" with the goods. The prosecuting attorney, when court time came, was unable to get witness subpoenas to the men and the case was carried over from term to term for the same reason, for one year, until this time when it was dismissed. The case of Denny Lovely, who had been on probation for the past year, was dismissed. Effie Headstead was ill and unable to be in court. James Pratt and Edward Edwards each pleaded not guilty and their cases are still to be heard.

Theodore Fitzpatrick and Charles Tiffin, charged with driving away an automobile, were found guilty by a jury. They were ably defended by Attorney E. M. Harris of West Branch. This was the first case to be heard and incidentally the first criminal case ever tried in our court by Prosecutor Merle Nellist. He was plenty able to cope with his wily opponent whose cunningness before a jury is quite generally conceded.

N. M. Marsh and Charles Duncan of Roscommon charged in justice court with violation of the game law, which cases were appealed to circuit court, were settled before court convened and fines paid.

Peck Guilty of Attempted Murder.
William Peck, charged with attempted murder, was found guilty by a jury, after a very short trial and only 15 minutes deliberation. The defendant claiming to be unable to employ an attorney, Atty Ross was appointed by the court for the defense. The story of the offense committed by Mr. Peck was published in our issue of last week.

Thomas Kelly, a side partner of Peck's, also charged with attempted murder and his trial this morning and the jury is still out at this time.

Earl Barber of Frederic was convicted on a charge of attempted murder. He also is awaiting sentence.

A jury is also out after hearing the evidence against Edward Edwards, for violation of the prohibition law.

Civil Cases.
The case of Nemesius Nielsen vs. the American Insurance Co., was settled out of court.

The above are all of the cases that have been disposed of up to the time of going to press. Further report of the court proceedings, together with an outline of the politics imposed, will appear in our issue of next week.

The following persons made up the jury panel for the term:

Hans S. Jensen, Beaver Creek.
Eli Forbush, Frederic.
George Stephan, Grayling.
Charles Miller, Lovells.

John Malco, Maple Forest.
Charles Decker, South Branch.
Homer G. Benedict, Beaver Creek.
C. S. Barber, Frederic.

Adam Gierke, Grayling.
Joseph Vance, Lovells.

Hemming Peterson, Maple Forest.
Geo. Kastenholtz, South Branch.
Chauncey L. Rogers, Beaver Creek.
Erve Roe, Frederic.

Paul Feldhauser, Grayling.
Alfred Vachey, Lovells.

Archie Howse, Sr., Maple Forest.
Orla Shreve, South Branch.
Henry Borchers, Beaver Creek.
H. B. Leeman, Grayling.
A. E. Hendrickson, Grayling.
M. McCormick, Lovells.

Richard Babbitt, Maple Forest.
Frank Decker, South Branch.

By Wednesday night the above panel had been exhausted and a new panel of 24 persons was drawn by the sheriff on order of Judge Smith.

FORTY HOUR DEVOTIONS WELL ATTENDED.

The Forty Hours adoration of the Blessed sacrament, that was held at St. Mary's church, beginning with the high mass on Sunday morning and closing Tuesday evening was well attended. Throughout all three days many of the faithful visited the church and there were a large number of communicants.

During this time Fr. J. J. Culligan was ably assisted by Fathers Hansknack of Mackinaw City, Hasenberg of West Branch, Miller of Campbells Corners, Van Coulen of Gladwin and Plafie of Grayling. The music that was rendered at most all the services was fine.

Sunday evening the people were treated to a very interesting sermon delivered by Fr. Hansknack of Mackinaw. And on Monday evening Fr. Van Coulen of Gladwin gave a very fine sermon.

KRIM'S CAPITAL IS REPORTED IN FLAMES

Spanish Troops Capture Maekran Heights—Paris Correspondent Killed.

Madrid.—Ajdir, Abdel Krim's capital in Spanish Morocco, a few miles from Alhucemas bay, is in flames, but whether set afire by the much beset Rifians themselves or by shells from the Spanish guns is not known here.

General Primo de Rivera, aboard the dreadnought Alfonso XIII, lying off the Alhucemas coast, sent by radio the fact that Ajdir was burning. It was against this stronghold that the Spanish advance in the last few days has been directed.

In his message Primo de Rivera tells of the Spanish troops reaching the Maekran heights without resistance by the Moors and with few casualties. Of the fate of Ajdir he says:

"Ajdir is afire, including Abdel Krim's headquarters. The conflagration, viewed from our new positions, presents a strange spectacle."

An official communique reports that the Spanish troops in the Alhucemas bay sector, following up their advance in which Monte Palomas was occupied, captured the important heights of Adur and Sedun, in the direction of Ajdir.

From these heights the Spaniards are able to dominate with their fire the camps of Krim's followers.

Fez.—An official communique says the French troops, equipped with every objective taken, the French troops (moving carried their lines twelve kilometers (7 1/2 miles) north of Kifane.

Reginald Kihun, correspondent on the Moroccan front for Le Temps, leading Paris newspaper, was killed by a Rifian bullet a few moments after leaving the staff headquarters of General Naulin.

Scranton Body Hopes to End Hard-Cool Strike

Scranton, Pa.—Hopes that a foundation for resumption of anthracite mining operations had been laid were expressed by members of the Scranton Chamber of Commerce committee after a conference with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

After the conference, which lasted for four hours, the only statement forthcoming from the committee was that the outlook was hopeful and that definite results were expected from another conference to be held with Mr. Lewis within a few days.

Bread Prices Are Reduced 20 Per Cent at Chicago

Chicago.—A slash of approximately 20 per cent in the wholesale price of bread to Chicago dealers will go into effect at once, a large baking company of Chicago announced.

As a result of the cut the retailer can sell the large 1 1/2-pound loaves that now sell for 15 cents at 12 1/2 cents. The small one-pound loaves now retailing at 10 cents can be sold for 8 1/2 cents.

Bread prices have been higher in Chicago than in other cities for the past five or six years.

Recommend Revision of Live-Stock Freight Rates

Washington.—After a preliminary investigation of complaints of the American National Live-Stock association and the National Wool Growers' association, interstate commerce commission examiners recommended that rates on live stock west of the Mississippi river be revised to conform to provisions of the mileage scale.

In the proposed revision some rates would be lowered while others would be raised, effecting a reasonable readjustment.

LaFollette Wins Senate Race by 130,000 Majority

Milwaukee.—Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., in being elected overwhelmingly to a seat in the United States senate here, not only rolled up a majority in excess of 130,000 votes, but carried 70 out of 71 counties in the state.

Kenosha county, home of the Coolidge stalwart Republican wing of the party in the state, went over to the opposition, LaFollette carrying it by a plurality over Dithmar of 216 votes.

Scopes Enters U. of C. for Course in Evolution

Chicago.—John Thomas Scopes, central figure in the evolution trial at Dayton, Tenn., hasn't enough of that subject. At the University of Chicago, where he will do postgraduate work, he said he would attend lectures on evolution to be given by Prof. H. H. Newman. He also signed up for a course in geology, which plays a big part in the evolution theory.

Seek Wilson Memorial Fund

Washington.—The National Woodrow Wilson Memorial association launched a drive to raise $5,500,000 for memorials at Washington and Princeton university. The Washington memorial would be an educational institution.

LOVELLS RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

A case of diphtheria has made its appearance in our city. This is almost entirely a new disease and the apprehension of its spread at this time is feared due to the fact that most of our children have been immunized by the treatment of toxin-antitoxin. Babies under six months are by nature immune from diphtheria. After that age they are generally susceptible up to the age of 10 or 12 years. The treatment of toxin-antitoxin is a certain preventative to contagion of diphtheria and every child should take this immunizing treatment.

Just as we were going to press with the last issue the jury brought in the verdict of guilty in the case of Thos. Kelly charged with attempted murder.

THE AMERICAN ENTERTAINERS PLEASE LARGE AUDIENCE

The American Entertainers, consisting of Miss Corine Jessop and Miss Helene Portune appeared in Grayling Wednesday evening as the first number on the local Lyceum course.

Their program, consisting of musical numbers, vocal solos and duets, as well as readings, more than pleased the large audience that filled the auditorium and balcony of the Michelson Memorial M. E. church.

Miss Jessop proved to be a reader of marked ability and quickly won the admiration of the audience. Her mezzo-soprano voice, and her ability at the piano added to enriching the program.

Miss Portune won her way into the hearts of her hearers by her brilliant coloratura soprano voice. Her many numbers were heartily applauded and every one felt that they were listening to an artist of rare ability. Her violin numbers proved her to be a talented violinist likewise.

Nothing but words of warmest praise and appreciation was heard from the audience as they left the church following the program.

Many in commenting on the program stated that they have seldom if ever heard the equal of these young ladies in a town of this size.

Such talent as this can only be secured when the community supports the efforts of those who seek to bring them here.

The second number of the course will appear here October 28th. This number features Edward Reno, the Master Magician, and will be held in the auditorium of the High school.

LOVELLS RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Isaac Goodale, a resident of Lovells township for the past 25 years, and the father of Mrs. Jess Schoonover of this city, passed away at his cabin on the North Branch, near Lovells, at eight o'clock Sunday morning last. Acute dilatation of the heart was given as the direct cause of death.

Mr. Goodale was about 74 years of age and had been under the doctor's care for the past year or more. He was in Grayling most of this time, making his home with his daughter.

About a month ago he returned to his cabin in Lovells, feeling somewhat improved in health, and it was here that he passed away.

Mr. Goodale was a lover of the great outdoors and particularly fond of fishing and hunting, and he was most contented and happy when he could be at his cabin on this beautiful stream. For several years he acted as caretaker at the Long club there.

The remains were taken Monday to Lapeer for burial where he was born and where most of his life was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Schoonover and daughter Miss Pauline accompanied the remains. Besides Mrs. Schoonover one other daughter, Miss Blanche Goodale of Lapeer survives.

The Nights were Torment

Now, thanks to Tanlac, Mrs. Bradley "really and truly" feels like a brand new woman!

Mrs. M. J. Bradley had come to the point where she could scarcely do her housework. Two years of suffering from indigestion had shattered her health. What little she ate caused stomach fermentation, gas bloating and pain. She lay awake through the long hours of the night and was tired out through the day.

"That four bottles of Tanlac should correct my troubles when all other attempts had failed makes it seem altogether wonderful to me. Now I enjoy a fine appetite, good digestion and really and truly feel like a new woman. It is the ideal tonic."

*Authentic statement; address on request.

You don't have to wait long to see the results from Tanlac. That's the wonderful thing about this great tonic. It works fast.

Like a flash it goes to the seat of trouble. It cleans the blood and drives out the poisons that are tearing down your health. It tones up the stomach and aids digestion—gives you a real appetite for wholesome food.

Don't drag on from day to day putting off the time of reckoning. Start taking Tanlac this very day. Your druggist can supply you.

NOTE: For Constipation, take Tanlac Vegetable Pills, Nature's own harmless laxative.

Michigan Happenings

"Trouble in industry the last few years has been due to lack of understanding and co-operation of the human elements in industry and the Y. M. C. A. can, through developing a better understanding between men and management, do much to avert misunderstanding in the future," declared H. M. Talferro, general manager of the American Seating company, at an industrial conference at Lansing, called to discuss human relationships in industry. About 50 plant executives from several of the states and larger cities and industrial secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. were in attendance.

Although the Consumer's Power company of Saginaw, declares it has the right to put into effect lighting rates submitted a week ago to the council and which are materially higher than the present schedule effective for the last 10 years the company is willing, according to John K. Samson, district manager, to follow the state rates. These are considerably lower than those offered. The council which received this statement has asked the city attorney to prepare a statement defining the city's rights in the matter.

Declaring their city market a proven success, and the space provided for it to be inadequate the federated clubs composed of practically all women's organizations in Battle Creek, and with a membership running into the thousands, has petitioned the city commission to investigate existing conditions and provide adequate space for the parking of wagons and trucks and to provide shelter for the same during inclement weather.

Ground was broken recently for Manistee's new high school on the northern half of Sanda Park. The excavating will be completed in about two weeks, preparatory to building the foundation. Actual construction will be started this fall if the weather remains moderate. It is to be a three-story building capable of filling the needs of this city through years of ordinary growth and will be completed in time for occupation early in 1926.

Winter is treading on the heels of autumn in the Upper Peninsula. Snow fell in Negaunee, although the trees still are robed in the gorgeous colors of early fall. Public buildings, houses and automobiles presented a Christmas picture for early risers. Negaunee welcomed the snow, since a heavy fall during the winter is necessary for the success of the ski tournament to be held Feb. 22.

Disregarding traffic signals and traffic officers stationed along the route, John Rook of Grand Rapids is believed to have saved the life of his 2-year-old son, Otto, by rushing him on a truck from his home to Banner hospital, after the child had swallowed a cupful of kerosene. Dr. Day by observing the traffic signals would have caused the child's death, hospital attaches said.

Fear that continued rains will cause damage to stocks stored in basements near the Grand river at Lansing, which is at its highest level since last spring has caused a number of business men to transfer their merchandise to higher ground. The river has risen several feet in the last few days and has overflowed its banks at several points.

In memory of the late Charlotte Blagdon, of Jackson, who died last August shortly after completing the term of office as president of the University of Michigan League of Women, a scholarship fund, to be called the "Blagdon Memorial Fund," will be established by the league.

Indictments against Gertrude and Jacob Viscer, brothers of Grand Rapids, charging them with having failed to file income tax returns, were among the 27 true bills reported by the district court grand jury. It is the first time such action has been taken against delinquents.

Adolph Ackerman, employee in the Fisher Body company at Lansing, suffered a fractured neck when a box fell on his head at the plant. He was removed to the St. Lawrence hospital, where it was reported his condition was extremely critical.

The contracting firm of L. A. Davidson company, Flint, was low bidder with an estimate of $18,405 for the construction of the bridge on the east side Bay City road across the Cheboygan creek, the county road commission announced.

Representatives of Michigan scenic and agricultural interests will hold a meeting in Detroit October 22, to plan a campaign against the corn borer, following an inspection trip which has just been completed through southeastern Michigan, northern Ohio and Ontario. The corn borer, which originally came from Europe, started its depredations in the eastern part of the United States, reached Michigan three years ago and now has advanced as far as Livingston county.

Rev. P. W. Dierberger, for the last five years pastor of the Congregational church of South Haven, has resigned to become secretary of the chamber of commerce at Albany, Ga., where he has a pecan ranch.

Acting with blue-ky law officers in every state in the union to stop fraudulent sales of Florida real estate, H. M. Duff, executive officer of the state securities commission, is withholding approval from wholesale batches of real estate licenses sought from the commission in the last 10 days. Duff plans to investigate all properties offered and to prohibit all promotions not approved by Florida "better business" agencies. He was emphatic in his warning to investors to refrain from buying unknown properties until the commission has had a chance to get its investigating machinery into working order.

The attitude which many citizens have assumed toward the federal prohibition law has created a "terrific menacing situation" in this country, declared District Judge C. W. Sessions in his charge to the grand jury at Grand Rapids. Discussing the point that there is a prevailing opinion that the prohibition act should be repealed or modified, Judge Sessions said, "It requires a two-thirds vote of both houses of congress and the affirmative vote of 36 states to repeal a constitutional amendment. Do you imagine for one moment enough votes could be mustered to repeal the prohibition amendment?"

A city's appearance typifies the character of its residents and Grand Rapids has a continuous and important duty of upholding its reputation as a beauty spot, according to A. E. Davidson, director of the department of public welfare. This city, said Davidson, is recognized as one of the most beautiful municipalities in the United States and the reason, he added, is because the minds of more than half its householders are concerned with improvement of the aesthetic appearance of their own homes and consequently with that of the city.

At a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission examiner at Chicago, Grand Rapids furniture manufacturers will protest that the proposed increase in freight rates to the eastern seaboard would be unwarranted. Because of increased and keener competition, even a light advance in these rates would handicap the industry, E. L. Ewing, acting for the manufacturers, said.

Affairs of the Southern Michigan Telephone company, serving rural residents and a number of towns in Branch and St. Joseph counties, Michigan, and in Lawrence county, Indiana, are in far more satisfactory condition than 16 months ago when taken over by the receiver, John W. Coffey, according to the latest annual report filed in the district court at Grand Rapids.

For the first time in the history of the state the association, which held its twenty-fifth annual convention at Adrian, a woman was elected secretary of the association. She is Miss Emma Stockert, manager-secretary of the Monroe County Abstract company. The other officers are: Ray Trucks, chairman, president; E. Abbott, Jasper, vice president; Herbert W. Giff, Adrian, treasurer.

Adrian has a hero of the "noble ages" who made the defense of the "Hill Brigade" at Balaclava, October 25, 1854, in the Crimea, immortalized by Alfred Tennyson. He is James Driscoll, Sr., who came to the United States afterward rather than accept the 100 acres of "Canadian" wilderness the British government offered him as a reward for his services in the army.

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, president of the University of Michigan, is to address the U. of M. Alumni club at Lansing December 2, according to an announcement made by club officials. The announcement came as a surprise at it had been understood Dr. Little had refused previous invitations and did not plan to come until next spring.

The state will complete the pavement between Ypsilanti and Sarnia, on M24, this year, if possible, the state administrative board directed recently. The board also directed the highway department to complete 224 miles on the same route to Hillsdale county, from M24 east to the county line, when no bids were received.

According to a survey just completed by the board of education at Birmingham, 260 dwelling houses are under construction here and will be completed with a few months. The survey was made to determine the extent of next year's building program for the school system.

Holland changed to Eastern Standard time Saturday night, October 17. The council for some time was undecided as to what action to take, since Grand Rapids retained last time. The spring election will decide whether last time shall be permanent or not.

Adrian adopted a school building plan when at a special election it voted to bond for $300,000 for the erection of ward schools. Only 606 tax payers voted and the project carried 313 to 293. The proposition has been before the city for the last three years.

The city commission of Fremont has decided to continue this city on eastern standard time until December 19, the date Grand Rapids has set as the period in which the fast time will be given a trial.

James Oker Curwood, famous Owaso author and sportsman, has announced that he will give to the Shiawassee County Sportsmen's Association $5,000 as the nucleus of a fund with which to build a clubhouse on some stream in Michigan.

A federal market news office to gather crop statistics for the fruit belt has been opened at Benton Harbor. The office will also supervise enforcement of federal shipping and grading laws.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

PYTHONS

"I'm sure," hissed the Regal Python from his cage in the zoo, "that all the other snakes envy me, poor dears poor, wriggling dears," he ended.

"I don't envy you in the least," said the Anaconda snake. "I'm a very beautiful snake. I have a gorgeous suit of green which I can always wear."

"You always have to wear it, hissed the Regal Python rudely. "You haven't any other."

"I beg your pardon, my dear sir, but I do not wear it all the time. I change my suit with the fashions—that is, I change it with the wish to change it. When I feel I am outgrowing one suit I get another."

"It makes me laugh," said the Regal Python, "to hear you say you change your suit, or your skin, with the fashions. It is true you do change, but you always get a skin of the same kind as your old one. You always wear a spotted green suit."

"Yes," said the Anaconda snake, "but that is fashionable."

"It may be fashionable for an Anaconda snake," said the Regal Python, "but it is not fashionable for me."

"I don't think of you when I get a new suit," said the Anaconda proudly. "I only think of myself. It would be foolish to get the skin of a Regal Python when I am not one."

"You couldn't do it," said the Regal Python. "I am the royal snake, the kingly snake. I am great and powerful and splendid. Instead of sitting on a throne all day long I lie here in the grass wriggling about. It is much better for a king to wriggle than to sit."

"It depends on what sort of a king you are," said the Anaconda.

"When I am in my own home in Africa or in Asia, for I belong to two countries, I do not care about being king. I only care about my own life. I weigh about one hundred and eighty-four pounds, you know, and I can do quite a little bit of wriggling."

"I know you can," said the Anaconda. "I've heard the keeper talk about your skin. I've always heard the keeper say that I am one of the most beautiful snakes of South America, and that I am very wonderful. For I love the water as I do the land."

"Toad," hissed the Regal Python. "That isn't being royal as I said."

"Well," said the Regal Python, "I think I will do a little hissing, too. I am hungry, delectably hungry. I mean I should ask me what I wanted for my luncheon or my dinner or my supper or my breakfast or my afternoon tea or whatever they call my meal. I would say to them—"

"What would you say?" interrupted the Regal Python.

"I would say to them," continued the Regal Python, "kindly serve me with a few rats, a cat or two if possible, some small and delicate animals, and any other little things they have in mind."

"Well," said the Anaconda, "you may get a good meal, but you most certainly won't get any of those animals you mentioned—unless, perhaps, the rats."

"Rats, rats," hissed the Regal Python, "how good the very name sounds to me. Ah, my mouth waters. My throat feels in great pain of a number of rats. Ah, how fine they would taste."

"The Regal Python, big as he was, wriggled in a most delighted manner at the thought."

"Which rat?" he continued after a short silence. "I haven't had anything to eat for six months. I had a dream then four rats. I think I had one or two other tempting little trillies."

"You eat very seldom," said the Anaconda, "but you make up for it when you do have a meal."

"Eat seldom but plentifully. Is my motto," said the Regal Python. "You see I am a big fellow. I am all coiled up now, but should I uncoil I would be a magnificent size."

"That all depends upon your idea of magnificence," said the Anaconda.

"Yes," said the Regal Python, "it all depends on that."

Bit Her Best Dress

Rowdy tugged at Marjorie's dress and the child cried.

"Why," said mother, "you aren't hurt—are you?"

"No," sobbed the child, "but just think. Rowdy bit me on my bestest dress."

What Puzzled Him

A science teacher was giving a lecture on gravity.

"It is the law of gravity that keeps us on the earth," said the teacher.

"But," inquired a boy, "how did we stick on before the law was passed?"

Students Show More Interest in History

A marked rise in the interest in history since the World War is seen in the increased enrollment in history correspondence courses of the University of Wisconsin—extension division, says an official bulletin. Some 298 students completed their history courses in the two years from 1922 to 1924, as compared with 232 who completed their courses in the twelve-year period from 1908 to 1920. In 1918 the enrollment in history was 895, and in 1922 the enrollment dropped to 542.

"The popularity of the course reflects public opinion decidedly," said Miss M. L. Edwards, in charge of the extension history department. "After the war the demand was chiefly for a general European history course. After the Egyptian tombs brought the King Tut craze, our ancient history courses swelled in enrollment. The demand for American history is constant."

FUGITIVE "CON MAN" RETURNS HOME TO DIE

John W. Worthington of Chicago Wills $2,000,000 to Daughter.

Chicago.—John W. Worthington, facing death in a city hotel room here, calmly told how he had disposed of his fortune of more than $2,000,000 in a will made a few hours before.

With every breath an apparent torture and a doctor standing by to administer hourly stimulants to keep alive the spark of life, the "Wolf of La Salle Street" detailed his bequests.

To Alice, the twenty-one-year-old daughter who sprang from under the nose of Federal agents from a sanitarium in Los Angeles and took him to exile in Mexico, he gave $1,000,000 in first-class stock, first mortgages and bonds.

He gave $1,000,000 more to another daughter, Mrs. John Rogers, New Rochelle, N. Y., wife of a New York broker. She, too, he said, had never "neglected her father."

"My dear little granddaughter, Helen," the daughter of Mrs. Rogers "will get $200,000."

Worthington slipped back into Chicago after an absence of two years, much of which was spent in his self-imposed exile in Mexico, with federal agents always on the alert to recapture him. He is under a two-year federal sentence.

For years Worthington battled to escape a cell, but in 1923 Judge Samuel Algebeul sentenced him to serve two years at Atlanta on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Col. Mitchell Refuses to Testify Before Board

Washington.—"I've been under coercion ever since I was ordered to Washington. Threats of court-martial were hanging over me while I was testifying before the President's aircraft board. Do you think I'd give the navy a chance to get statements from me that the War department might use against me? Not on your life."

This was the statement of Col. William A. Mitchell after he had refused to testify before the naval court of inquiry investigating the Shenandoah disaster.

"At first I didn't object to testifying," he said. "But Congressman Frank R. Reid, my counsel, did. He was right. A member of the general staff, Col. Charles B. Stone, was in the room with a stenographer prepared to take down my testimony."

"And no matter what I would have said, this navy board would have twisted it around and put me in a bad light."

"As soon as we are through this court-martial, then I'll be glad to testify, and under oath."

Racing Plane Falls at New York Meet; 1 Killed

New York.—A perfect opening for the New York air races at Mitchell field, L. I., with the largest assembly of military and civilian planes ever brought together in this country, was marred by a crash in the first race which killed one man and badly injured another.

The Balanca plane, piloted by Clarence D. Chamberlain in the contest for civilian machines, fell in Hempstead, badly injuring him and instantly killing Lawrence Burdell, his passenger.

The race in which Burdell was killed was won by Basil Rowe in a Thomas Morse with a speed of 102.9 miles an hour.

Three Killed, Forty Hurt in Ammonia Tank Blast

St. Louis.—Three known deaths occurred in a terrific explosion that enveloped the ten-story Laclede Gas Light building in the downtown business district here.

The list of injured who received hospital treatment stood at forty. The dead are Mrs. Anna Stoll, clerk; Carl T. Brewer, engineer; Armand Marquardt, maintenance man.

Company officials said the explosion apparently was caused by an expansion of ammonia fumes in pipes leading to a refrigerating plant in the basement of the building.

Noel, Confessed Kidnaper, to Be Tried for Murder

HAS DIFFICULT TASK

With the Coolidge economy campaign now in full swing the War department has become one of the favorite places at which to swing the official ax. Maj. Gen. Kenzie W. Walker, chief of finance and budget officer for the War department, is confronted with the task of securing sufficient funds for the department and satisfying Director General of the Budget Lord.

COOLIDGE FOR FORCED RAILROAD MERGER

Consolidation Should Come After Seven-Year Period.

Swampscott, Mass.—President Coolidge and Senator Watson of Indiana came to an agreement in a conference that an amendment to the Esch-Cummins bill forcing railroad consolidation after a period of seven years should be sought in the next session of congress. Senator Watson is assistant floor leader in the upper chamber and chairman of the Interstate commerce committee.

Approval of the Van Sweringen merger, now pending before the interstate commerce commission, would clear the way for other voluntary consolidations, and a seven-year limit on voluntary action would have the effect of assuring the completion of almost all necessary mergers within a reasonable time, the President and Mr. Watson decided.

Watson believes the attempts to abolish the railroad labor board will be defeated.

Passage of a tax reduction bill before March 15 when first payments in 1926 incomes are due, was predicted by Senator Watson.

Illinois Is Elected Commander of G. A. R.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—In a turbulent session here the Grand Army of the Republic completed the work of its fifty-ninth annual encampment, elected its commander in chief, and adjourned sine die.

John B. Inman of Springfield, Ill., past department commander of Illinois, was chosen commander in chief.

The Sons of Veterans as well as the women are pledged with the veterans to seek increased pensions for the veterans and their widows. It is hoped that an increased pension of $12 a month for all veterans and $50 a month for all widows can be obtained.

British Methods Are Assailed by Turks

Geneva.—Discussion of the Mosul question here before the council of the League of Nations opened with an attack by the Turks on the British, charging that British air and sea forces have been engaged in demonstrations against Turkish territory.

This session hopes to decide whether Mosul shall go to Turkey or to Britain.

The British spokesman ignored the possibility of giving Mosul to Turkey and rejected by inference another solution, that of splitting the territory. He insisted that the union of Mosul with Iraq must not interfere with the British treaty with Iraq.

Rail Workers Laid Off; Striking Miners Warned

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Idle anthracite mine workers were warned by Rinaldo Capinelli, president of District No. 1, United Mine Workers, not to accept other employment at reduced wages, thus undermining regular outside labor.

Notices were posted at the Ashley shops of the Central Railroad of New Jersey announcing that they would be closed for one week as a result of lack of work due to the mine suspension. Twelve hundred men will be thrown idle.

Madame Le Brun

Mme. Le Brun was a French painter who gained considerable reputation in Paris. Her paintings, historical pieces as well as portraits, were exhibited in the Louvre. Mme. Le Brun speaks of the talents of Mme. Le Brun with much wariness of praise, and complains that the men "ought to depreciate her paintings because she was a woman."—Chicago Journal.

FREDERIC NEWS

Oh yes, the hills west of town since the frost are just equal to Yellow Stone Park.

The County road job is progressing finely. We note they started graveling last Monday.

Parent-Teachers' association meeting date has been changed from Oct. 26th to Oct. 22nd, on account of the local teachers going to Saginaw to attend a Teachers' convention.

The question has been asked several times what was the auditorium built in connection with our high school for, but last night it was filled to capacity to listen to the first of five entertainments given by some of the best talent that comes to this part of the state. Another such number will be given Nov. 18. Don't forget the date.

Many people are attending Court in Grayling this week, there being some very interesting cases.

Archie Feldhauser and family of Maple Forest have moved to the Underhill Club. Their little daughter Virginia adding one more to our school.

Clayton Budd is home from the hospital, where he has been receiving treatment for a broken leg.

G. Stillwagon made a trip to Ludington.

Mrs. A. Goff of Grayling was in town Sunday.

The friends of Isaac Goodale were sorry to hear of his death. He had lived in Lovells for about 25 years. He was a great hunter and fisherman. His friends will miss seeing him about town.

U. S. REPORTS YIELD OF CORN IS REDUCED

Forecast Indicates Crop of 2,885,000,000 Bu.—Wheat, Oats Show Gain.

Washington.—The indicated corn yield has been reduced by 65,000,000 bushels in the last month as a result of drought and continued heat, according to the government report, made here, which placed the probable crop at 2,885,000,000 bushels. The estimate was 2,950,000,000 the previous month and 2,937,000,000 in the same month of 1924.

The crop is extremely spotted, with the reduction of 42,000,000 bushels in South Dakota and 3,000,000 bushels each in Minnesota and Illinois. In Illinois the total of 378,082,000 was a surprise in view of recent pessimistic reports. The Iowa crop was virtually unchanged, while the Ohio estimate was raised 4,000,000 bushels, indicating a record yield for that state.

Nebbraska's estimate was decreased 18,500,000 bushels and that of Kansas 7,000,000.

Gains of 21,000,000 bushels in spring wheat, 75,000,000 bushels in oats, and 6,000,000 bushels in barley were reported, with the gain for the five leading grains 37,000,000 bushels over August, raising the total to 5,321,000,000 bushels, an increase of 174,000,000 bushels as compared with 1924.

Based on the prices prevailing for September delivery of wheat, oats, rye, and barley at Chicago and Decatur, delivery on car, the five leading grains have a valuation of $4,330,000,000 as of September 1.

The winter wheat crop is 418,000,000 bushels and the total of all wheat 700,000,000 bushels compared with 874,000,000 bushels harvested last year, which is also the five-year average. Late oats are yielding much better than was expected, and the estimated crop is now 4,402,000,000 bushels, an increase of 75,000,000 bushels. The crop figure has been exceeded only three times in the country's history. The harvest last year was 1,542,000,000.

Mellon to Ask Heavy Reduction of Surtaxes

Washington.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, who has just returned from a vacation at Southampton, indicated that he was ready to place himself at the service of the house ways and means committee, which will soon begin framing the tax reduction bill for the Sixty-ninth congress.

Salient features which will be included in the secretary's recommendations when he is called upon by Chairman Green for a statement of his views are the following:

Heavy reduction of surtaxes on large incomes.

Repeal of the publicity section of the revenue act.

Reduction of federal estate taxes with a view to final elimination of such taxes which the secretary believes should be left to the states.

More People but Less Money in United States

Washington.—A Treasury department estimate made public here put the population of the United States on September 1 at 114,340,000, against 112,922,000 September 1, 1924. Exclusive of funds held by the treasury and Federal Reserve banks, money in circulation the first of the month was $4,784,024,000, an increase for two months of $10,146,000. The per capita circulation, however, showed a falling off, being only $41.84, as compared with $42.28 a year ago.

The Better Buick is a Man-sized Motor Car

People appreciate a smart-driving, easily-handled, full-sized, man-sized car. The Better Buick for instance.

Each Buick model seats its capacity of full-grown people—in relaxed ease—without cramped legs or necks. Tail people, especially, enjoy its extra head-room and leg-room.

American men and women are above the average stature. And a smaller car than Buick is apt to be tight-fitting, low-ceilinged, crowded!

Drop in and try the ample, arm-chair comfort of a car that is right in size. Being some of your six-footer friends. You will find another big reason why Buick is so widely considered a better motor car—another reason why there are a million and more enthusiastic Buick owners.
